

Prison Writes Class Course Evaluation

Professor Louis Bourgeois
MSP Training Building

- What were the best aspects of this course and the instructor? How was the course helpful? Please be specific.

The writing improved my writing ability.

- Do you believe your writing and reading skills have improved? If so, how did the course promote this improvement? Do you feel you will be able to sustain a writing and reading discipline once you leave the class? yes.

- Were the instructor's written and oral comments on your pieces helpful? Were in-class writing and reading exercises useful and stimulating?

yes, the instructor was very helpful.

yes, the writing was also very stimulating.

- How has your own attitude toward writing changed because you took this course? Do you feel more or less interested in writing and reading? Do you feel this course helped you better understand the difficulties and pitfalls as well as the techniques of writing? Be specific.

The writing course was a plus.

- After taking this course, what do you consider to be your greatest strengths as a writer—and your greatest weaknesses?

My greatest strength is long writing.

My greatest weakness was writing about childhood.

Earnest Herring #41881